

Charming Mid-Century Home

10612 SE 74th Ave., Milwaukie

Property Features

5 Bedrooms

2 Bathrooms

BAC: Yes

2698 Sq Ft

This home built in the 1960's, is in original condition and has fun details including original wood planked walls. The home offers spacious living areas filled with natural light from skylights and large windows. Hidden beneath the carpet is the original hardwood flooring which provides a chance to create a classic look. With solid wood cabinets, abundant counter space and a roomy pantry, the kitchen easily provides ample area for all cooking needs. A unique Dutch-style door opens out to a deck overlooking the expansive backyard. With plenty of storage, generous living areas, bonus room and bright sunroom opening to a large yard, this home is perfect for anyone looking for additional space and multifunctional potential in a great location.

More to Love

- The daylight basement includes a spacious laundry room, an additional living space and the bedroom could become a home office with an outside entrance.
- Cozy up with three fireplaces, including a pellet stove and wood-burning option.
- Backyard is a gardener's dream or the perfect spot for entertaining, plus a handy storage shed.
- Conveniently located near Clackamas Town Center with restaurants, gyms, schools, an aquatic center, the hospital, and easy access to I-205.

Heather Robbins

Licensed Oregon Principal Broker

503.807.5189

heather@robbinsrealtygroup.com

