

European Swiss Chalet Style

611 Ridgeway Rd., Lake Oswego

Property Features

4 Bedrooms

5.5 Bathrooms

1 Car Garage

4847 Sq Ft

A storybook European Swiss chalet in the heart of Lake Oswego, where old-world alpine architecture meets refined Northwest living. Steeply pitched rooflines, exposed timber beams, and handcrafted details evoke the charm of a mountain retreat while offering sophisticated comfort. Located on the coveted Peninsula in the quiet Lakewood neighborhood, a charming dutch door opens to an interior of rich mahogany floors, handcrafted woodwork, and floor-to-ceiling wainscoting. The soaring family room features two-story ceilings and a sleek fireplace, while the open floor plan provides effortless main-level living with a primary ensuite. Every bedroom serves as a private suite, including upper-level rooms with vaulted ceilings. Downstairs, a full walkout basement with a kitchenette leads to a private, tree-lined backyard featuring a flagstone patio, firepit, and large deck perfect for entertaining.

More to Love

- Main-level primary ensuite features a lavish claw-foot soaking tub and elegant finishes.
- Intricate banisters with unique cutouts, open rafters in select areas, and extensive custom paneling.
- Stainless appliances, gas range, glass-front cabinetry, and a convenient eat-in bar.
- Access to a private, gated neighborhood area for lake gear storage and activities (additional fee applies).
